Mrs. Ann Drury

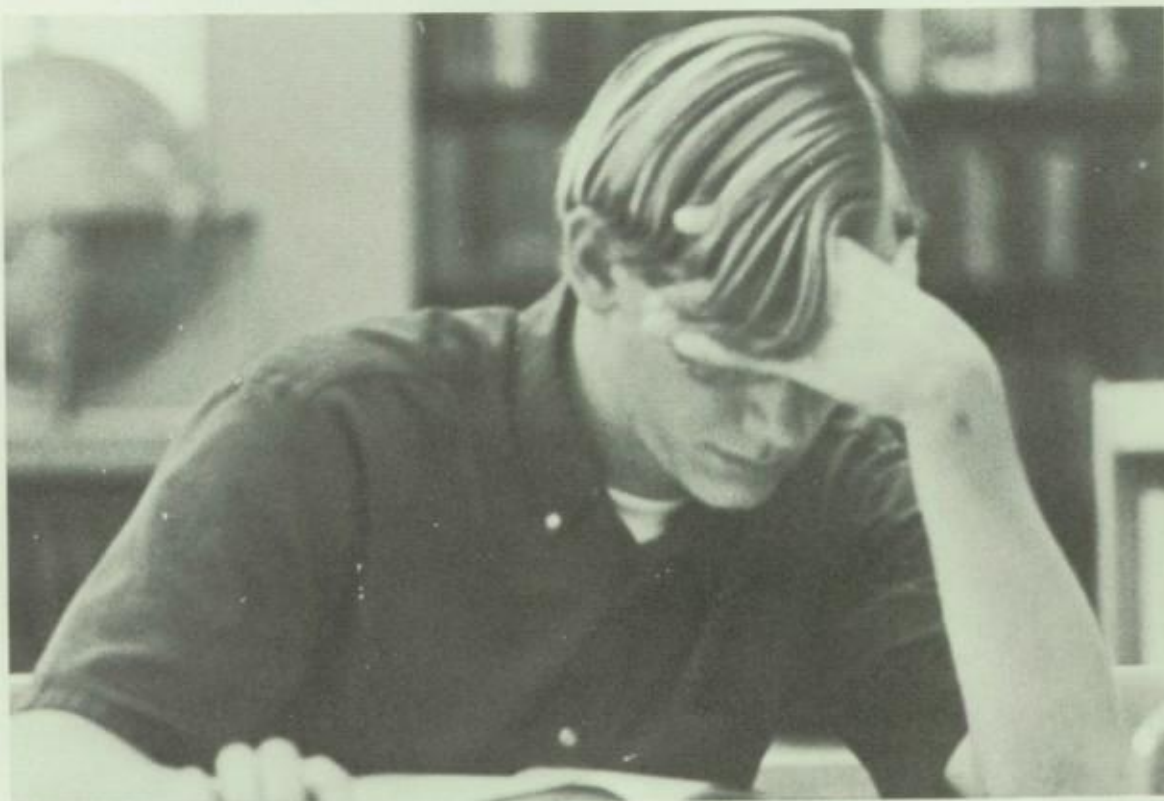

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born,
And a time to die;
A time to plant,
And a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill,
And a time to heal;
A time to break down,
And a time to build up;
A time to weep,
And a time to laugh;
A time to mourn,
And a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones,
And a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace,
And a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get,
And a time to lose;
A time to keep,
And a time to cast away;
A time to rend,
And a time to sew;
A time to keep silence,
And a time to speak;
A time to love,
And a time to hate;
A time of war,
And a time of peace.

To acquaint students with the medical profession, Pasadena High School offers a paramedical class. Under Mrs. Genevieve Lucas, a registered nurse, the students become familiar with various health careers available and learn the basic nursing skills. Areas of orientation, instruction, and hospital practice include medical and surgical floors, pediatrics, maternity, emergency room, laboratory, and convalescent hospital. The students work at St. Luke Hospital, Park Marino Convalescent Hospital, and Marlinda Convalescent Hospital. The program is a great experience for all 11th and 12th grade boys and girls interested in the medical field.

"The Russians are coming."

"The Sound of Music"

"Wanna hold my hand?"

"So long, farewell."

In the past, P.H.S. has come through with flying colors in it's spring musicals, but this year with it's production of "The Sound of Music," they surpassed themselves. Maria, the Von Trapp family, the whole cast, all came across as reality, because, in a sense, they were. The harmony and love on stage existed off stage as well. It was a thrilling experience for all, and the sweat and hard work expended was paid back in full by the enthusiasum of satisfied audiences.

"I enjoy being around rich people."

"My favorite things"

"How do you solve a problem like Maria?"

"Climb every mountain."

"the road is long with many a winding turn that leads us to who knows where, who knows where. but i am strong, strong enough to carry him. he ain't heavy - he's my brother. so on we go - his welfare is my concern, no burden is he to bare, we'll get there. for i know he would not encumber me - he ain't heavy he's my brother. if i'm laden at all i'm laden with sadness that everyone's heart isn't filled with a gladness of love for one another. it's a long, long road, from which there is no return while we're on our way to there, why not share. and the load doesn't weigh me down at all - he ain't heavy, he's my brother."

this yearbook has become a very meaningful and exciting part of my life - because it is a book of people. for their patience, kindness and help i would like to thank each one of these special friends. mrs. drury who put up with all of us and our messes and our frequent goofs and even me. thanks to the teacher who was more of a friend. rah ucla! mamie shih who was more of a help to me than both a right and left hand. instead of art editor- assistant editor. mrs. settle who graciously endured the lunch delegations, and gave her support and encouragement (as well as supplies) to our work. miss hardy who helped with program checks, Tuesday and Thursday meetings, 1500th yearbook and ... packing! miss anderson who tried, usually successfully, to fill my frantic requests for the impossible. mrs. ungermann who gave us all her ideas for selling yearbooks, kept count on the people buying books and the money brought in. most of all i'd like to thank her for the concern she had that prompted her to stop whatever she was doing to offer suggestions or files. miss tubbs who, with a good-natured tolerance, granted our last minute bulletin notice and call slip requests. cont.

*"for a long time karellen stared back across that swiftly widening gulf, while many memories raced through his vast and labyrinthine mind.
in silent farewell, he saluted the men he had known, whether they had hindered or helped him in his purpose*

"no one dared disturb him or interrupt his thoughts: and presently he turned his back upon the slowly dwindling sun."
